The purpose of our project is to develop an app for Hast International AB (https://www.trueeffectiveness.com/home) to complement their online products as a parallel learning journey, almost as a game-like environment on the cellphone. They want some kind of play-map where you can see where you are, and then see how new levels unlock when you finish tasks/games. This app will work as an extension to the online program they already have on their website.